* The listed works, if not indicated otherwise, are in Russian script and language. All titles have been translated into English (placed in round and square parentheses) but are not part of the original text.

The titles shown in crimson belong to articles and publications dedicated to numismatics or related otherwise to the coins as historical source.

Some articles of lesser importance have been omitted, including paragraphs, translations, summaries, insignificant minor notices in periodicals, etc., mostly falling out of the main thematic scope of the author's scholarly research or initially not intended for printing. Omitted are also works prepared and submitted but not yet published, as well as a few items that had supposedly been published but not known to the author in the printed form. The total number of prepared works, including the above-mentioned, exceeds 360.

 The table is applied only to the Russian and other Cyrillic-written titles of published items. Proper nouns (authors' or other persons' names, geographical appellations &sim.), apart from those used in the same titles, are spelled according to normative English orthography.
